FRIDAY, JULY 3 - THURSDAY, JULY 9

40th Anniversary! New 35mm Restoration! EASY RIDER

at 3:30, 5:30, 7:30, 9:30 (+ Sat & Sun at 1:30); Please note: No 9:30 on Sat 7/4

(1969) dir Dennis Hopper w/Peter Fonda, Dennis Hopper, Jack Nicholson, Karen Black [95 min]

"You boys don't look like you're from this part of the country," says hungover lawyer Jack Nicholson to leather-garbed, star-spangled Peter Fonda's "Captain America" and Dennis Hopper's hirsute, fringed buck-skinned Billy. After a big Mexican cocaine haul, the bikers chug in with wealthy Mod-affired Bayer Florida retirement, along with the eye countering a real live hippie commune, Nicholson's football-helmeted ACLU lawyer, hippie-hating rednecks (the diner sneers were small town Louisianians freely improvising), French Quarter working girls Toni Basil and Karen Black, and the screen's baddest act trier. From its sensation-1969 world premiere at Cannes – where it garnered Hopper a special award – EASY RIDER seemed to feel the pulse of a "non-senior" after America, becoming "the movie that changed Hollywood forever" – when you gross $50 million on a $375,000 budget, people notice – introducing to mainstream moviemaking a New Wave-inspired editing style and the first significant all-rock score, including sensational tracks by Steppenwolf, The Byrds, The Band, and Jimi Hendrix. Not the least, it also kick-started the 32-year-old Jack Nicholson to superstardom – he was just on the verge of getting acting quits. – notes from Film Forum, NYC

NEW 35MM PRINT!

FIRST U.S. RELEASE!

DILLINGER IS DEAD

Fri at 8:00pm; Sat - Mon at 5:30, 7:30 (+ Sat & Sun at 1:30, 3:30)

(1959) dir Marco Ferreri w/Michel Piccoli, Anita Pallenberg, Gino Lavagetto [90 min]

After a hard day's work designing this year's gas masks, industrial engineer Glauco (Piccoli) comes home to a cold dinner, a sleeping wife, and an alcohol mad. The answer to his petti-boredom? Prepare a gourmet meal, putter about, and reconstruct an antique revolver that may or may not have been owned by John Dillinger. A mind-blowing, multi-layered, and psychedelized celebration of anarchy in life and cinema, Marco Ferreri's unjustly neglected masterpiece is a cult classic awaiting its cult, anchored by a stunning lead performance and an amazing pop soundtrack.

An anarcho-surrealist akin to Buñuel and Pasolini, Ferreri remains little known in the US – much to the detriment of stateside cinema lovers. His films have been nominated an astonishing eight times for the Palme d'Or at Cannes and ever more bizarre images charged with social and political commentary await a further delving into Ferreri's career. The Brattle is thrilled to present this rare opportunity to see the work of one of Europe's most under-rated cinematic provocateurs on the big screen.

"40 years later, the final moments of DILLINGER IS DEAD can still send an audience startled and scintillated into the night." - Scott Foundas, The Village Voice

Newly Restored Technicolor Noir!

LEAVE HER TO HEAVEN

at 5:00, 7:30 (+ Sat & Sun at 2:30)

(1945) dir John M. Stahl w/Gene Tierney, Cornel Wilde, Vincent Price [110 min]

There are very few instances where the classic film noir truly works in color, and LEAVE HER TO HEAVEN is perhaps the most successful of this treasured few. Noir stalwart Tierney stars as a woman who seems perfectly wonderful until it's revealed that she is totally bankers. While plays her unsuspecting husband and the focus of her maniacal jealousy – a jealousy that is targeted not just at other women, but anyone and anything that draws her husband's attentions away from her. Highlighted by an absolutely stunning performance by Tierney – particularly notable when her pleasant exterior cracks and the cold, calculating femme fatale underneath can be glimpsed – gorgeous Technicolor cinematography, and some utterly fabulous 40s costumes, LEAVE HER TO HEAVEN is not to be missed! Restored by the Academy Film Archive in cooperation with Twentieth Century Fox, with funding provided by The Film Foundation.

"MESMERIZING! A very special film! A glorious restoration!" – Martin Scorsese

"SPECTACULAR! The most frightening film that cinema has given us about the evil of jealousy." – Pedro Almodóvar

"Stahl's purpose unfolds only on the big screen, where the blue-velvet skies and the lethally smooth waters acquire the unquestioned clarity of a fever dream... Technicolor reaches its astounding opulence in the lips of Gene Tierney, as red as a witch's apple. Each frame of her seems to be hand-tinted." – Anthony Lane, The New Yorker

"GORGEOUSLY RESTORED... Tierney is one of cinema's most chilling psychopaths." – Melissa Anderson, The Village Voice

Friday, July 24 – Monday, July 27

In Tribute to David Carradine

HILL BILL, VOL 1 & 2

Volume 1: Fri at 5:00; Sat at 7:45; Sun at 11:45am, 4:45pm

Volume 2: Fri at 7:15; Sat at 2:00, 7:00; Mon at 4:30

(2003/2004) dir Quentin Tarantino w/Uma Thurman, David Carradine, Lucy Liu, Vivica A. Fox, Daryl Hannah, Michael Madsen, Chikri Kuriyama, Sonny Chiba, Gordon Liu [111 min/136 min]

One of the saddest things about the recent death of 83-year-old actor David Carradine is that he seemed poised for some kind of come-back thanks to this epic exploitation homage from Quentin Tarantino. Carradine is featured as Bill, the so-bad-he's-good leader of the Deadly Viper Assassination Squad that Uma Thurman's "Bride" must get through to reach her ultimate goal and KILL BILL. This amazing film (split into two parts for easy digestibility) takes all the best bits from all your favorite action and exploitation genres and mashes them all up and comes up with a clever homage that never seems like a pale imitation.

Return Engagement!

Steven Soderbergh's

CHE: PART 1 & 2

Part 1: Fri at 4:15, 7:00; Sat at 1:30; Sun at 11:00am, 4:15p

Part 2: Sat at 4:00; Sun at 4:15, 6:45; Mon at 6:30

(2008) dir Steven Soderbergh w/ Benicio Del Toro, Demian Bichir, Santiago Cabrero, Catalina Sandino Moreno, Franca Potente, Julio Ormond [P.1 = 134 min, P.2 = 131 min]

Steven Soderbergh's epic interpretation of the life of one of the 20th century's most well known, and little understood, cultural icons, CHE stands as one of the great cinematic achievements of last year. Known for his far-ranging interests and experiments, Soderbergh here tackles the theory subject of Ernesto "Che" Guevara, star of many a shirt and down-room poster, and his life as a revolutionary leader in Cuba and elsewhere. Benicio Del Toro is remarkable in his embodiment of Che as not just a stridently devoted Marxist but also an intellectual, physician, soldier, and charismatic leader.

PART 1 details Che's role in the Cuban revolution and intercuts depictions [that in gorgeous, grainy black & white] of his visit to New York City to address the U.N. in 1964. PART 2 follows Che after the Cuban Revolution as he tries to recreate its success in Bolivia. An endeavor that eventually leads to his capture and execution in 1967.

"A work of grand ambition. An experience you won't forget." – Peter Travers, Rolling Stone

Friday, August 7 – Monday, August 10

NEW 35MM PRINT!

ALIEN

(1979) dir Ridley Scott w/Sigourney Weaver, Tom Skerritt, Harry Dean Stanton, Yaphet Kotto, Veronica Cartwright, Ian Holm, John Hurt [117 min]

Ridley Scott's iconic sci-fi/horror film is back on the big screen in a brand new 35mm print! Weaver plays Ripley, a member of a crew on a salvage mission to a planet where they find a huge alien spaceship – and, unfortunately, one alive (and re-deadly) alien. With the extraterrestrial star of this film now an almost ubiquitous part of sci-fi mythology, the original ALIEN serves to remind us why. Scott has acknowledged the influence of The Texas Chainsaw Massacre on this film and it's obvious, not only in the grand-guignol murders of the crew members, but also in the intense filmmaking, the immediate, realistic dialogue, and the nerve-racking tension. Thirty years on and ALIEN has lost none of its power and influence. ALIEN is one of those remarkable films where everything just simply works. From the score to the acting to the set design and direction – everything seems to draw us further into the story. Simply put, both one of the best horror films and best sci-fi films of all time.

"One of the great strengths of ALIEN is its pacing. It takes its time. It waits. It allows silences... It suggests the enormity of the crew's discovery by building up to it with small steps... Still vibrates with a dark and frightening intensity." – Robert Egert

Friday, August 14 – Monday, August 17

Area Premiere!

EVANGELION 1.0: YOU ARE (NOT) ALONE

at 3:30, 5:30, 7:30 (+ Sat at 1:30pm). Please note: No 3:30 show on 8/17 (2007) dir Shinji Aramiki, Masayuki & Kazuya Tsurumaki w/Spike Spencer, Allison Keith, Dubbed in English [98 min]

Anime fans rejoice! The most anticipated 'rebuild' of the legendary Neon Genesis Evangelion series is underway and now, finally, making its way to US screens. For those Brattle patrons not in the know, EVANGELION is one of the most popular and highly respected sagas in the anime universe and, yes, it prominently features giant robots. The central premise of the series is that the Earth is under apocalyptic threat by monstrous creatures known as Angels. The Angels are combated by a shadowy organization named Nerv that enlists certain special teenagers to pilot huge robots, known as Evangelions.

This new film takes the core story back to the very beginning with the introduction of Shinji Ikari – the series' chief protagonist. Shinji is the estranged son of Gendo, the commander of Nerv, and his father basically guilt trips him into taking control of an Evangelion and joining the team. Of course, this is only the tip of the iceberg for a series that has always been known for its complexity, depth, action, and emotional weight. EVANGELION 1.0 is exciting, rousing, and action-packed, and will please old fans of the series while undoubtedly introducing a whole new generation to this amazing work. One of those rare anime stories that rises above most people's expectations of the genre.

"Hulking human-dimensioned modules with design pointing the way to prophesied amalgamations of flesh and circuitry, the Evangelions rank in the top bracket of contraptions dreamt up by Japanese animators." – Variety

75th Anniversary!

THE COMPLETE THIN MAN

Twenty years ago, the Brattle undertook a marvelous project: showing all 6 films in the THIN MAN series back-to-back, in a marathon weekend extravaganza. Now, on the occasion of the original film's 75th birthday, we're doing it again! Join us for a weekend full of capers, quips, colorful characters and lots and lots of booze as we visit with the formidable crime-solving team of Nick and Nora Charles and their pooch Asta. Stars William Powell and Myrna Loy, director W.S. Van Dyke, and writers Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett wisely chose to downplay the formidable cynicism of Dashiell Hammett's novel in favor of highlighting its equally formidable comedic charms. The result is nothing short of the pinnacle of comedy-infused mysteries. The following films in the series have their ups-and-downs, its true, but the amazing chemistry and timing of Powell and Loy remains a joy throughout. Whether hunting murderers, raising a child, throwing a party, or trying (and failing) to find some peace and quiet, the Charleses always come through with wit, and wits, to spare. Special package tickets will be available at brattlefilm.org.

UNTIL THE LIGHT TAKES US

at 7:30pm

(2009) dir Aaron Aites, Audrey Ewell w/Gyvela Nagell, Varg Vikernes, Jan Axel Blomberg [93 min]

UNTIL THE LIGHT TAKES US is a documentary about black metal: an ideological movement/music genre comprised of musicians, murderers, church-burners, and suicide victims. The film examines the birth and explosive arc of black metal: through the eyes of the scene's leaders, who tried to change the world using music and symbolic acts of violence. Part post-modern art movement, part terrorist movement, and part rock scene, the film tells a story unlike any other.

"As richly compelling and artfully shot as rock docs get." – LA Weekly

Friday, July 31 & Saturday, August 1

Breakin' 2: Electric Boogaloo

at 10:00pm

(1984) Sam Firstenberg w/Adolfo 'Shabo-Do!' Quinones, Michael 'Boogaloo Shrimp' Chambers, Lucinda Dickey, Susie Coelho, Ice-T [94 min]

BREAKIN' 2 was the winner of a highly sensitive poll to determine which of three 'classic' breakdancing movies released in 1984 to include in this series. We think that the amazing scene where Fred Astaire's dancing-on-the-ceiling routine is updated for '80s audiences gave BREAKIN' 2 the advantage. In any case, ELECTRIC BOOGALOO contains all of the kidsgoing-the-man action that you're going to need this summer.

Friday, August 7 & Saturday, August 8

Muppets Take Manhattan

Fri at 9:30; Sat at 12:30, 2:30, 9:30

(1986) dir James Frawley w/Miss Piggy, and all the rest [94 min]

The third of the original Muppet movies, this is a favorite for many. After graduating from college, Kermit and the gang travel to New York City seeking success on Broadway. When Kermit mysteriously disappears, however, the rest of the Muppets must decide whether the show can go on without him.

Friday, August 14 & Saturday, August 15

Red Dawn

(1984) dir John Milius w/Patrick Swayze, C. Thomas Howell, Lea Thompson, Charlie Sheen, Jennifer Grey, Harry Dean Stanton [114 min]

Few films of the 1980s reflect an anti-Soviet paranoia so rife in society at the time as effectively as RED DAWN. This borderline exploitation flick tells the story of a banal Colorado town that becomes ground zero for a full-on Russian invasion. Luckily, a group of teenagers hole up in the surrounding mountains and become homegrown resistance fighters with their hunting gear. Nationalistic propaganda was never so much fun!

THE CLASS OF 1984

Friday, July 10 – Sunday, July 12

TERMINATOR

Fri at 10:00pm; Sat & Sun at 9:30pm

(1984) dir James Cameron w/Arnold Schwarzenegger, Linda Hamilton, Michael Biehn [107 min]

Maybe Arnold's best casting ever, as the Terminator, a cyborg sent from a post-apocalyptic future to kill Sarah Connor (Hamilton) the mother of the as-yet-unborn leader of a future resistance. Arnie detroys anything that gets in his way and takes his share of damage – which exposes his metal robot skeleton in the process.

Monday, July 13

at 9:30pm

Aside from all the great movies released in 1984, there were some truly memorable television as well. To name just a few: Transformers, Miami Vice, The Cosby Show, Punky Brewster, and V. There are many more shows that you may remember – or want to forget. We'll be putting together a special program of clips and episodes of some of 1984's best and worst TV.

Friday, July 17 & Saturday, July 18

THIS IS SPINAL TAP

at 10:00pm

(1984) dir Rob Reiner w/Christopher Guest, Michael McKean, Harry Shearer [82 min]

This dead-on, hysterical parody about a bungling British heavy metal band on their last legs features so many classic performances and scenes that its difficult to select a favorite. We challenge you to get the classic tunes by the most famous fake rock band ever out of your head after seeing this film.

Sunday, July 19 & Monday, July 20

TOP SECRET!

at 10:00pm

(1984) dir Jim Abrahams, David Zucker, Jerry Zucker w/Val Kilmer, Kelly Rowland, Omar Sharif [90 min]

An improbable mash-up of a WWII resistance adventure and an Elvis flick, TOP SECRET stars Kilmer as Nick Rivers, an American rock star on tour in Germany, who unwittingly (or wittlessly as the case may be) uncovers a Nazi plot to relocate control of the country. TOP SECRET is filled with groan-worthy puns, nonsequitur jokes and bizarre sight gags that all manage to actually be funny, unlike so many of the ensuing movies that imitate the style.

Friday, July 24 & Saturday, July 25

REPO MAN

at 10:00pm

(1984) dir Alex Cox w/Emilio Estevez, Harry Dean Stanton, Tracey Witter [92 min]

"The life of a repo man is always intense." – A pal named Otto stumbles into a career as a repo man and subsequently comes across a car containing a mad scientist and something very valuable – and very dangerous – in the trunk. This movie is just plain awesome – hilarious, surreal, and quotable, with a amazing soundtrack!

THE KARATE KID

at 9:30pm

(1984) dir John G. Avildsen w/Ralph Macchio, Pat Morita, Elisabeth Shue [126 min]

Baby-faced Daniel (Macchio) moves from Jersey to California, expecting a charmed life on the West Coast. Unfortunately Daniel finds that he doesn't fit in with the surfer crowd and keeps getting beat up. Daniel soon meets Mr. Miyagi, who teaches him the art of karate through rather unconventional means (the infamous "wax on, wax off") and Daniel enters the local karate tournament to teach the guys who bullied him a lesson they'll never forget.

STREETS OF FIRE

at 9:30pm

(1984) dir Walter Hill w/Michael Pare, Willem Dafoe, Diane Lane, Rick Moranis, Amy Madigan [93 min]

STREETS OF FIRE is a quilly entertaining slice of '80s retro. Tom Cody (Pare), a hired gun returns to his retro-futuristic Detroit-esque hometown only to find his girlfriend (Lane) kidnapped by a biker gang led by a typically sinister Willem Dafoe. Did we mention that the final showdown takes the form of a streetfight... with sledgehammers?

GHOSTBUSTERS

at 9:30pm

(1984) dir Ivan Reitman w/Bill Murray, Dan Aykroyd, Sigourney Weaver, Harold Ramis, Annie Potts, Ernie Hudson, Rick Moranis [105 min]

In a year of culturally defining movies GHOSTBUSTERS has stood the test of time as an absurd, wonderful comedy classic. A group of misfits become heroes when unruly ghosts – and one particularly large Stay-Puft Marshmallow Man – overrun New York City. Classic theme song, classic characters, classic lines, and a classic concept – you just can't go wrong. "Who ya gonna call?"
